CLIMATE WEEK NORTH EAST

Small steps make a
BIG difference

19th September - 4th October 2026

Climate Week North East (CWNE) is an annual regional festival led by NESCAN Hub, dedicated to raising awareness about the environment, reducing our carbon footprint, and inspiring practical local action towards a greener future. This year there are lots of local events celebrating sustainability and community resilience.

What's On Across Udny:

- National Emergency Briefing, Saturday 19th Sept, 7.15pm: Join in the local launch of CWNE26 with a screening of this impactful climate action film at Dr Spence Memorial Hall in Udny Green, followed by a community consultation with Udny Climate Action. See 'Key Dates', p.3 for details and how to book your free tickets.
 - Community Litter Picks, Tuesday 29th Sept & 6th Oct, 2.30-4.30pm: Join us at Open Doors at The Medan Centre for two community litter picks.
 - Reduce, Re-use, Recycle Talk, Thursday 1st Oct, 7.15pm: Join us in the Garden Room for a talk on waste reduction from Udny Community Shelf's Hayley Yule and other guest speakers, offering practical tips on how to lower household waste.
 - Udny Community Turbine Open Day, Saturday 3rd Oct, 10am-3pm: To round off CWNE26, we are holding an Open Day at the community turbine at Tillymaud. The theme is Community Resilience Against Climate Change. Visitors can see the turbine up close and discover how Udny Community Trust uses the revenue to help develop our local community. Udny Resilience Group will showcase their work to educate the community and prepare for extreme weather events. Udny Climate Action will share information on their work to mitigate against the impact of climate change in the local area.
 - Pop up Book Chat, Tuesday 6th Oct 7.15pm . Pick a fiction or non-fiction book linked to sustainability or climate. 🌍 Bring along a topic, idea, or insight from your book. Let's get our book chat on! Haven't got time to read pop along and get inspired to add some of these texts to your next read!
- Keep an eye on social media, local noticeboards and our website for details: the location and directions will be advised.

Spotlight

Udny Swap Shop

The Udny Swaps volunteer team are the driving force behind the Udny Swap Shop: a circular economy initiative to reduce waste in Udny and get more life out of everyday items.

Clothes, toys, bric-a-brac can be swapped with friends and neighbours. The Swap Shop is for everyone - you can donate items or pick up something new-to-you at no cost. The Swap Shop happens four times a year, one for each school term, and takes place in Pitmedden Hall. The next Swap Shop is on Friday 25th - Sunday 27th September. See 'Key Dates' on page 3 for details.

Follow Udny Swaps on social media to get the latest information on each Swap Shop!
